Objective : Spreading awareness among stakeholders about sexual crime against children and women.

Date: 14.07.2018

No. of Students Participated: 83

Report: When a child is subjected to related misconduct at the hands of someone other than an aid worker, this is defined as sexual violence. Sexual violence against children occurs in every country, across all segments of society. Humanitarian assistance programmes should be designed and delivered not only to mitigate the risk of sexual exploitation and abuse, but to provide the necessary response when abuse occurs. Women Cell Members Dr. G. Swarnalatha, Dr. Sujatha are attended to this programme and given few lectures on the topic with attractive addressing.

Outcome: Students and Staff developed awareness about sexual crimes and the measures to prevent them. Women and children in emergency settings face the greatest risk of sexual exploitation and abuse.

EVIDENCE :

Women Cell Members Dr. G. Swarnalatha, Dr. Sujatha Addressing the Students
